

Souvenir

The school is out, - a little draught
We've drunk at Wisdom's spring,
May deeper draughts by us be quaffed,
And may we to her cling.

THE CLOSE OF SCHOOL.

The School is out, vacation's come,
The bell has ceased to sound,
The old School House has lost its hum,
And silence broods around.

Oh! sweet it is when tasks are done,
And we have earned a rest,
To let our inclinations run
In ways we like the best.

And sweet, too, when the fields are green,
And summer's in its glow,
To wander mid some sylvian scene,
Where shadows come and go.

And passing sweet to sit and muse,
And day-dreams idly spin
How we our future years will use,
And how success to win.

But sweeter far than those,
Are wisdom's pleasant ways;
The fruitage of the seed she sows,
Is peace and length of days.

Our games, amusements, pranks and feuds,
The impress of each face,
Through all our lives' vicissitudes
Their memories we will trace.

And teachers, faithful, patient, true,
Who labored with their might,
To open knowledge to our view,
And lead our steps aright.

Oh! thanks to them for all their pains,
And their devotion true,
May that reward which time ordains
Be theirs, by merit due.

WITH BEST WISHES
this token
Is presented with The Compliments
of your teacher..

I hear the hum of voices sweet,
I hear the merry shout,
As children one another greet,
And cry "The school is out!"
